N. D. TO HONOR HER SOLDIER DEAD

Solemn High Mass to be Sung Tuesday Morning, Followed By Exercises.

Tuesday morning at Notre Dame university the exercises will begin at 8 o'clock with a solemn high mass for the repose of the souls of the many warriors who went forth from Notre Dame to lend their aid to the cause of their country. After the mass the exercises in Washington hall, the place where the most unique Grand Army post in the United States was established, will again recall the deeds of these few heroes.

The post at the university is composed almost exclusively of priests and brothers of the Holy Cross congregation. It was founded at Notre Dame in October, 1897, with a total membership of 12 men. The ranks later grew until a membership of 49 was attained. Several of the members of the community were members of the Confederate army. Some of these men were priests that Notre Dame sent to the army as chaplains when the war broke out, and others were soldiers who later received the vocation to enter the religious life.

Ranks Depleted.
The ranks of the University G. A. R. post have been sadly depleted by death in the last few years, but there are still a half dozen survivors, enough to maintain a company. Among these are Col. William A. Haynes, dean of the law school at Notre Dame, who saw distinguished service during the war; Bro. John Chrysostom, C. S. C., a stalwart, white bearded old soldier who was known by the fighting name of Private Mark Wells in the 54th Pennsylvania volunteers, and his service to the community of Holy Cross is not yet over for he is one of the best authorities on bees in northern Indiana and maintains several hundred hives; Bro. Raphael, who, despite his age, is still the active head of the printing shop of the Ave Maria, the Catholic weekly publication, and Bro. Cosmas, who resides in the community house at the university.

Other Notable Ones.
Among the other members of the post who were notable in the history of South Bend and Notre Dame were Rev. William Corby, Rev. Peter Cooney and Rev. Gen. William Olmstead. Fr. Corby, who was one of the volunteers that left Notre Dame for chaplain service when the war broke out, was the chaplain of the famous "Irish Brigade," and will be remembered in history as the priest who gave the general absolution to the soldiers, before the famous charge of Pickett's Brigade in the battle of Gettysburg. This was the only general absolution ever given upon an American battlefield. Fr. Corby later became president of Notre Dame, and his memory is honored today by one of the best paintings at the university showing him giving absolution to soldiers under fire, executed by Paul Wood. A large statue mounted upon the stone brought from the field of Gettysburg, stands in front of the hall that bears his name.

Fr. Cooney was for a number of years one of the most beloved members of the faculty of Notre Dame. He was a parish priest in South Bend for a number of years. In the war he was made chaplain of the 35th Indiana regiment, and was decorated with a medal for distinguished services rendered. Gen. Olmstead, who was for some time a member of the post, won his title as brigadier general through his bravery on the battlefield of Gettysburg. Malvon Hill, Fredricksburg, Petersburg and many others. Had the post been established sooner several more names might have been added, including nearly every religious of the Holy Cross congregation who was a member of the community during war times.

BIG CROWDS OUT AT SPRINGBROOK

Opening Day of Amusement Grounds Draws Thousands—Dance Hall Patronized.

Springbrook park attracted immense crowds yesterday for the opening of the regular season. The balmy weather brought out crowds and all the rides, concessions and amusement devices were well patronized.

Some disappointment was occasioned from the fact that the Old Mill and the Human Laundry were not ready to open, although a double force of workmen were busily engaged all day in rushing the work to completion. The delay was explained by the failure of several important pieces of machinery to arrive. The express strike in Chicago was given as the cause.

The dancing pavilion was well patronized. Miss Ruby Higa, who was in charge of the building last season, arrived from Chicago yesterday. She promises a number of pleasing surprises and enjoyable dancing parties the coming season.

Tomorrow the park will be ready to care for the Memorial day crowds. In the evening the Mishawaka Woolen Co.'s popular concert band will offer a pleasing program. Plans are progressing rapidly for the earth and air speed carnival, booked for next Sunday. Katherine Simson, the girl queen of the clouds, and daring Dario Resta, the idol of the speedways, will compete in a thrilling race on the half mile leaders in tomorrow's motor race at Indianapolis. Miss Stinebaugh is known as the world's only lady aviator who loops the loop and flies upside down.

BOY WILL RECOVER

Lad Hit by Auto Expected to Survive Injuries.

George J. Stewart, the 9 year old boy injured Saturday by the machine of John Lighter of Buchanan, Mich., is much improved and is recovering his strength rapidly. He was reported last evening at Epworth hospital. Although the boy is suffering from a fracture of the skull, Dr. Edgar Myers, the physician in charge, is confident that his recovery will be speedy and complete.

ODD FELLOWS ATTENTION

Odd Fellows No. 29, special meeting of No. 23 Monday evening at 8 o'clock to make arrangements for funeral of Bro. E. F. Johnson. All Odd Fellows invited to attend funeral Tuesday at 10 a. m. Meet at hall at 9 o'clock.

MOTOR PARTY IN NARROW ESCAPE

Auto With Five Occupants Turns Over in Ditch, But No One Is Hurt.

To have a car in which five grown persons and a baby were riding turn over in a ditch and the occupants not injured, was the adventure of a party of motorists who left South Bend yesterday afternoon.

The people in the car were E. J. Ross and wife of 1034 Woodward av.; E. W. Shoemaker of Indianapolis, with his wife and baby, and D. V. Shoemaker.

Last week Mr. Ross purchased a new car and the Shoemakers were in South Bend spending the day with the Ross family. The party was driving down the hill near the county farm on Portage rd. Ross and his wife were in the front seat and the others in the rear seat with the baby in Mrs. Shoemaker's lap. Another machine was ahead of them driving slowly. Ross attempted to pass the first machine and had reached a point alongside of it, when a third machine, driven by Joseph Werwinski, appeared from an opposite direction.

Skids Into Ditch.
In trying to avoid hitting Werwinski's car, Ross turned to the other side of the road. His machine skidded into a ditch and turned over on its side, throwing the occupants into the mud.

Werwinski stopped his machine and took Mr. and Mrs. Shoemaker and the baby into town. None was severely injured.

Ross' face was scratched and his clothes were torn; the top and mud guards were torn from his car, but it was still in running condition. With the assistance of men from the county farm, the machine was pulled out of the ditch and Mr. and Mrs. Ross drove it back to South Bend.

Find Two More Smashed.
Shortly after the Portage accident, the police station was called and someone reported on the phone that two men had been badly hurt out on Division st. near the Summit farm. Officers Kimmerly, O'Connell and Wendowski drove out and discovered a machine in a ditch along the road. No one was found near the place.

Half a mile further west the officers found another machine in a ditch with no one near it. This car was so tightly embedded in the mud that it was impossible to pull it out and the men returned to the first machine, which they rescued without much difficulty.

They then drove further out on Division st., but no more automobiles in distress were found.

GIVES REPORT ON SOCIAL CONFERENCE

Miss Leila Scott of Associated Charities, Tells of Work at Indianapolis Last Week.

"The time will come when we will not brand men as criminals, but expect them and if necessary exile them from society," said Miss Leila Scott, secretary of the Associated Charities last evening at the First Baptist church, during the course of her report of the Indianapolis work of the National Conference of Charities and Corrections, which she attended.

Miss Scott went on to state that perhaps no other one thing has taken so great a hold on the public as the question of juvenile probation. The national conference has taken a great interest in the matter and is seeking to remedy the existing evils of juvenile delinquency by an extensive educational campaign. Miss Scott praised the splendid work of Thomas Mott Osborne and the Mutual Welfare League at Sing Sing.

After briefly sketching the history of some of the most important social innovations, Miss Scott made an appeal for the proper training and care of backward children, insisting that many states have failed utterly to properly provide for their backward and feeble-minded citizens. Even Indiana, she said, was caring for only 1,300 out of the 5,000 that need care of some sort. Miss Scott concluded her report by pointing out the relationship existing between religion and the true inspiration of charity, declaring religion to be one of the fundamental principles of the modern social service.

RETURN WITH BODY OF SON OF DR. STOLTZ

Dr. Charles Stoltz, 530 N. Lafayette st., and A. M. Russell returned from Jeffersonville at 7:25 last night with the body of Charles Stoltz, son of Dr. Stoltz, which was found in the Ohio river at Jeffersonville Friday morning.

The boy, who was 19 years old, disappeared from the state sanitarium at Madison, Ind., on Nov. 11. When the body was found it had apparently been in the water for several months and was identified by a watch bearing the name C. Stoltz.

No arrangements have been made for the funeral.

Notre Dame News

The commencement program which has now been fully completed will be sent to all of the members of the alumni association of the university as well as to old students. The official commencement program follows:

Saturday evening, June 16th—Address in Washington hall by the Hon. Martin J. Wade, judge of the United States district court of Iowa.

Sunday morning, June 17—In Our Lady of the Sacred Heart chapel, commencement mass for students and faculty. Baccalaureate sermon by Rev. Charles P. Raffo of Louisville, Ky. After mass, exercises by graduating class in raising their flag. Afternoon—Laying of the cornerstone of the new library, following which the annual meeting of the alumni association will take place in the Brownson study hall.

Monday, June 12—At 8 o'clock in the university church a requiem mass will be sung for the deceased alumni. In the afternoon on Carver field a baseball game will be played between the alumni and varsity. In the evening, final graduating exercises will take place in Washington hall following a band concert on the lawn. The address at the final exercises will be delivered by Max Pam, founder of the school of journalism.

Rev. Wendel P. Corcoran, C. S. C., a member of the Holy Cross Mission band of Notre Dame, will again preach at the second annual retreat for the young ladies of Indiana which will be held in Tipton, Ind. The retreat proper will last only from Aug. 6 until Aug. 9, as the remainder of the week will be devoted to recreation. The object of the retreats are to give a few days of mental rest and recreation to working girls and at the same time invest them in spiritual questions. The plan was originated at St. Joseph's academy last year and Father Corcoran preached the first retreat.

The alumni association is making a special effort this year to have a banner attendance at the meeting. Form letters will be sent to all of the members and the clubs throughout the country are postponing their annual meetings in order to spend commencement week at Notre Dame.

The Memorial day exercises will be held in Washington hall tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock under the auspices of the Notre Dame post No. 569, Grand Army of the Republic, members at 8 o'clock in the Church of Our Lady of the Sacred Heart a mass of requiem will be sung for the repose of the souls of the departed members of the university post. Visits to the graves of the religious soldiers will be made by the remaining members of the post.

The program in Washington hall will be as follows: Selections by the university orchestra under the direction of Prof. Frank Derrick. "The Gettysburg Address" by Leon and Carroll. "National Loyalty" by Hugh Carroll. "Chivalry in Modern Life" by Thomas McLaughlin and the Memorial day ode will be delivered by Edward N. Marcus. Following the regular program the military commissions and prizes will be awarded to the winning cadets.

HIGH SCHOOL GRADUATES GET WORDS OF ADVICE

Rev. C. A. Lippincott Delivers Baccalaureate Sermon on Sunday Morning.

Rev. C. A. Lippincott of the First Presbyterian church, delivered the high school baccalaureate sermon in a forceful manner at the regular services yesterday morning. Dwelling at length on the steps which the young graduates are about to take, Rev. Lippincott forecasted many dangers which might befall any one of them and pointed out the best ways possible to overcome these dangers. "All life is not like that in a high school, and the sooner a student gets that out of his mind, the better for him," said Rev. Lippincott.

A magnificent musical program preceded the sermon. The large body of seniors, composed of about 90 girls and 40 boys, marched to the church from the high school building in a body. Each girl present wore an American Beauty rose. The next event on the program for the graduates is the senior play, Wednesday evening.

ALLIANCE MEETS

The Young People's alliance of the Mishawaka Evangelical church met last night at 8:45 o'clock at the church, when the topic "How Missions are Blessing the World" was discussed. The meeting was held under the auspices of the Woman's Missionary society of the church. Mrs. George Wyman delivered an interesting address on "Mission Service" and Miss Hannah Auer rendered a number of instrumental and vocal solos.

CONFIDENT CO. F WILL BE RESTORED

Officers Expect Favorable Action if Adjutant General Will Accept Promises.

That Co. F, Indiana National Guard, will again be mustered into service was thought extremely probable last night by both Major George Freyermuth and Capt. Charles B. Calvert. Maj. Freyermuth declared that public interest and backing would assuredly put the company back in the service. Although no definite action has as yet been taken by the federal government to officially restore Co. F as a guard unit the committee in charge is confident that the ultimate action will be favorable if Adj. Gen. F. L. Bridges and other high officials are willing to accept the promise of reform made by the local company and its backers. The committee will meet early this week to consider any new developments in the case.

Among the reforms demanded by the federal government inspectors of Co. F is an increased enrollment and regular attendance at drill. Co. F can at present muster some 6 men, but at least 50 more are needed to assure success. The committee is also advocating a change in company officers, and a strict discipline, in order to make a better appearance at the next inspection, if allowed to participate. The loss of Co. F to South Bend will mean the withdrawal of over $6,000 worth of government equipment.

Bury Bandits Without Single Word of Prayer

FIELD HEADQUARTERS NEAR NAMIQUIPA, Mexico, May 28 (via wireless to Columbus, N. M.).—Candelaria Cervantes and Juan Beucomer were buried Sunday without religious ceremony. They were no flowered carts; no words spoken over the graves of the bandits, who had caused the expeditionary command almost as much trouble as the Villa himself. Even the village padre at Namiquipa, where Cervantes had grown to manhood, declined to officiate at the services. Two dusty two-wheeled carts, drawn by dustier mules, bore the coffins through the huddled adobe houses to the town to a little cemetery on the outskirts. A few Mexicans, wrapped in dirty blankets, one of them Cervantes' father, a toothless old woman and a few dogs comprised the funeral party.

ITALIAN VESSEL SUNK

Lloyds' Reports Sailing Ship Rita Is Sent Down.

LONDON, May 29.—Lloyds' shipping agency announced Sunday that the Rita, an Italian sailing vessel, had been sunk.

The Rita was a brigantine of 200 tons gross. The vessel was built in 1914 and owned at Viareggio, Tuscany.

SCRAPS

The output of copper in Alaska was more than four times as great in 1915 as it was in 1914. Copper mining there began in 1901 and the total output to the close of 1915 is 219,913,375 pounds, valued at $24,919,581. Of this amount, according to the United States geological survey, $6,509,312 pounds, valued at $15,139,129, was produced in 1915.

Sydney (Australia) newspapers are calling attention to the fact that while Australia has produced a record wheat crop following on the pressing request of the British government to grow it abundantly, and the object of meeting the Russian and other shortages, British ship owners refuse to transport it except at the highest rates in the memory of the oldest inhabitants.

As part of the regular school curriculum seniors in the high school at Knoxville, Tenn., are to make a systematic survey of the occupations and industries of that city. The survey will cover condition of workers, maximum and minimum wages, character of promotion and any other information that will serve to throw light on the character of the specific vocation. A study of the social, civic and economic conditions of the city will also be made.

An examination of the vicinity of Orofino, Idaho, where valuable coal beds were thought to exist, has resulted in a report by the United States geological survey that there is substantial coal of medium grade. In view of its character and the thinness of the beds, the survey believes that this locality will not be of importance as a coal field, except possibly in a small way, by supplying coal for local use in the distant future.

PLATFORM TO BE BRIEF BUT VITAL

Chairman Hilles Expects Planks on Only Most Important Issues.

CHICAGO, May 29.—Chairman Charles D. Hilles of the republican national committee Sunday expressed the opinion that the platform which will be adopted by the national convention next month would be unusually brief and deal only with the most vital public questions. From information obtained in talking with party leaders on the subject he believes the principal planks in the platform will include the following:

A statement on Americanism. A statement on preparedness for adequate military and naval defense. A declaration in favor of a protective tariff to be prepared by a non-partisan tariff commission created by congress, with special attention to the needs of the industries of this country, after the close of the European war.

A declaration in favor of a merchant marine. A statement dealing with the alleged shortcomings of the democratic national administration.

T. R. the Dictator

In speaking of the probable action of the progressive national convention called to be held June 7 in Chicago simultaneously with the republican national convention, Chairman Hilles said: "I imagine everybody assumes that the progressives will nominate Roosevelt for president. If the republican convention adopts a straightforward, sincere, ringing declaration of the vital public questions now being discussed and nominates a man clearly equal to the important tasks which will confront the next president, Roosevelt might not think there would be any need of his entering the field. But if the republicans nominate a man who Mr. Roosevelt thinks is a misfortune and adopts a platform which he regards as 'bunk' he may feel so outraged as to run, and perhaps help re-elect President Wilson."

On the question of national woman suffrage Chairman Hilles said there was a difference of opinion among the party leaders and he did not know what action the convention would take on the subject.

Purely Deliberative.
Chairman Hilles denied a report that the organization had ever thought of attempting to force the nomination of a candidate for president the first day of the convention. "This convention will be a truly

Wife is Shot While Kissing Her Husband

BRAZIL, Ind., May 29.—Mrs. Ethel Marshall, wife of Alexander Marshall, a coal miner, was wounded seriously late Saturday night when she put her arms around her husband to kiss him goodbye before he went to work and a revolver he was placing in his pocket was accidentally discharged. The Marshall lives at Peart, six miles from here. He carried the weapon for protection in his way to work on one of the early morning shifts.

deliberative body, and it is pure speculation to attempt to say what it will do in the matter of nominating a candidate for president or when it will get through," he said. Chairman Hilles appointed Frank A. Smith of Pennsylvania as chief assistant secretary for the convention and named the following as assistant secretaries:

W. H. Topping of New Hampshire, Roy M. Watkins of Michigan, Paul Haynes of Indiana, Frank H. Smith of New Jersey, James L. Phillips of District of Columbia, R. J. Beamis of Pennsylvania.

Among the arrivals Sunday was Harry S. New, republican nominee for senator in Indiana.

John W. Dwight, manager of the Elihu Root campaign, announced that his candidate would not come to Chicago for the convention. T. Coleman Dupont of Delaware is expected to arrive Monday and open headquarters.

CLOAK SHOPS CLOSE

Garment Makers' Strike Forces New Jersey Shops Down.

NEW YORK, May 29.—Most of the cloak manufacturing houses in New Jersey have been closed because of the garment makers' strike in this city, according to a statement made Sunday by the Cloak and Suitmakers' union. It was asserted that members of the Manufacturers' associations have been operating several plants in New Jersey under the names of the foremen or superintendents. "Rush" work has been sent from New York to these factories, it was said.

REMOVAL. W. A. Bugbee and H. G. Schock have removed their Abstract of Title business to the 2nd floor of Farmers' Trust Building, 1st door at head of stairway and 1st door next to the East elevator.

7 NEW BISHOPS CONSECRATED

Impressive Services Mark the Closing Hours of M. E. General Conference.

SARATOGA SPRINGS, N. Y., May 29.—Seven new bishops and two missionary bishops of the Methodist Episcopal church were consecrated Sunday afternoon at an impressive service which was almost the last important business of the 27th general conference before final adjournment Monday. All of the board of bishops participated in the service, which was conducted according to the ritual provided for such occasions. The bishops consecrated and the station to which they have been assigned were:

Herbert Welsh, Seoul, Korea; Thomas Nicholson, Chicago; Adna Wright Leonard, San Francisco; Matthew S. Simpson, Hughes, Portland, Ore.; William Fitzjames Oldham, Buenos Aires; Charles Bayard Mitchell, St. Paul, Minn.; Franklin Hamilton, Pittsburgh.

The missionary bishops were Eben Samuel Johnson, Africa, and Alexander Priestley Camphore, the negro chosen to the episcopacy this session, Liberia, Africa.

Conference Important.
The conference is characterized by the delegates as one of the most important ever held, principally of the plans adopted which, it is believed, will lead to the unification of Methodist churches within four years and perhaps by 1918.

Efforts are to be made to obtain within the next four years a $10,000,000 pension fund for retired clergies and their widows.

Members of the church were urged to ally themselves with political efforts against the liquor traffic. A new section of the discipline will ask that members refrain from the use of tobacco.

Indorse Suffrage.
Suffrage was indorsed and polygamy denounced. Efforts to remove the "amusement clause" from the discipline again failed and members are still liable to expulsion if they play cards, dance or attend theaters.

Regarding the labor problem the church took action which gives recognition to collective bargaining and recognizes the labor union as a force in society which has brought great benefits to the laboring man.

The conference pledged to Pres. Wilson the cooperation of the Methodist Episcopal church in an effort for peace in Europe and urged that the United States take the first step in the formation of a league which will insure future peace.

SUGGESTION: Anticipate your Nemo needs before prices advance.

FOR ECONOMY FASHION HEALTH WISE WOMEN KNOW WHY!

Lots of short stout women don't like a long corset-skirt, never did—and, in fact, can't wear a long corset.

Thousands of such women have been wearing Nemo No. 318 for years, because it is the BEST for THEM.

Self-Reducing Straps support and reduce the abdomen—drive away excess fat. Full skirt, with elastic gores at back, confine heavy hips with ease.

No. 318 is a great value, strong and durable, ultra-stylish. Sizes 22 to 36—$3.00

No. 319 is similar, but for full figures of medium height—$3.00.

Every Nemo is an extra value simply as a corset. For the health features, which are priceless, you pay nothing extra.
